

Our priorities during an event

We have introduced a RAG rating for those households registered with us. It is our policy that our volunteers would be directed first to those with a red RAG rating which is for the most vulnerable in the community.